PROJECT PLANNING

| Team id      | LTVIP2025TrMID30893         |
|--------------|-----------------------------|
| Project name | Calculating Family Expenses |

Assign task to team members

| Functional    | User story                                | No of    | Team     |
|---------------|---|----------|----------|
| requirement   |   | activity | member   |
| Setting up    | As a ServiceNow                           | 1        | B.pooja  |
| service       | developer, I want to                      |          |          |
| instance      | create a new table so                     |          |          |
|               | that I can store and                      |          |          |
|               | manage specific data                      |          |          |
|               | for my application or                     |          |          |
|               | business requirement                      |          |          |
| Creation of   | As a ServiceNow                           | 1        | B. Pooja |
| new update    | developer, I want to                      |          |          |
| set           | create a new table so                     |          |          |
|               | that I can store and                      |          |          |
|               | manage specific data                      |          |          |
|               | for my application or                     |          |          |
|               | business                                  |          |          |
|               | requirement.                              |          |          |
| Creation of   | As a ServiceNow                           | 4        | В.       |
| tables        | developer, I want to                      |          | soujanya |
|               | create a new table so                     |          |          |
|               | that I can store and                      |          |          |
|               | manage specific data                      |          |          |
|               | for my application or                     |          |          |
|               | business                                  |          |          |
| Creation of   | requirement.                              | 4        | D        |
|               | As a ServiceNow                           | 4        | B.       |
| tables (daily | developer, I want to create an "Expenses" |          | soujanya |
| expenses)     | table in the Daily                        |          |          |
|               | Expenses application                      |          |          |
|               | so that users can                         |          |          |
|               | record and track their                    |          |          |
|               |   |          |          |
|               | daily spending.                           |          |          |

| relationship  developer, I want to create a relationship between tables so that related data can be linked and accessed efficiently.  Configuring related list on family configure a related list on the Family Member record so that I can view all expenses entered by that family member directly from their profile.  Create of As a ServiceNow developer, I want to create business rules on the Expenses table so that specific logic and automation can be applied when records are inserted, updated, or deleted  Configure As a developer I want to configure a relationship nowdeveloper, I want to configure a relationship between the Family Members table and the Expenses table so that I can link each expense record to the parson who incurred it | Creation of  | As a ServiceNow          | 1 | D.sravani |
|---|--------------|--------------------------|---|-----------|
| between tables so that related data can be linked and accessed efficiently.  Configuring related list on family configure a related list on the Family Member record so that I can view all expenses entered by that family member directly from their profile.  Create of As a ServiceNow developer, I want to create business rules on the Expenses table so that specific logic and automation can be applied when records are inserted, updated, or deleted  Configure As a developer I want to configure a relationship nowdeveloper, I want to configure a relationship between the Family Members table and the Expenses table so that I can link each expense record to the   | relationship | developer, I want to     |   |           |
| that related data can be linked and accessed efficiently.  Configuring As a ServiceNow developer, I want to configure a related list expenses on the Family Member record so that I can view all expenses entered by that family member directly from their profile.  Create of As a ServiceNow developer, I want to create business rules on the Expenses table so that specific logic and automation can be applied when records are inserted, updated, or deleted  Configure As a developer Service relationship expenses table so that to configure a relationship between the Family Members table and the Expenses table so that I can link each expense record to the  | ,            | create a relationship    |   |           |
| be linked and accessed efficiently.  Configuring related list developer, I want to configure a related list on the Family Member record so that I can view all expenses entered by that family member directly from their profile.  Create of As a ServiceNow developer, I want to create business rules on the Expenses table so that specific logic and automation can be applied when records are inserted, updated, or deleted  Configure As a developer Service relationship nowdeveloper, I want to configure a relationship between the Family Members table and the Expenses table so that I can link each expense record to the  |              | between tables so        |   |           |
| Configuring related list developer, I want to configure a related list on the Family Member record so that I can view all expenses entered by that family member directly from their profile.  Create of As a ServiceNow developer, I want to create business rules on the Expenses table so that specific logic and automation can be applied when records are inserted, updated, or deleted  Configure As a developer I want to configure a relationship between the Family Members table and the Expenses table so that I can link each expense record to the  |              | that related data can    |   |           |
| Configuring related list developer, I want to configure a related list on the Family Member record so that I can view all expenses entered by that family member directly from their profile.  Create of business developer, I want to create business rules on the Expenses table so that specific logic and automation can be applied when records are inserted, updated, or deleted  Configure As a developer, I want to configure a relationship nowdeveloper, I want to configure a relationship between the Family Members table and the Expenses table so that I can link each expense record to the   |              | be linked and            |   |           |
| related list on family expenses on the Family Member record so that I can view all expenses entered by that family member directly from their profile.  Create of business developer, I want to rules create business rules on the Expenses table so that specific logic and automation can be applied when records are inserted, updated, or deleted  Configure the Service relationship Newdeveloper, I want to configure a relationship between the Family Members table and the Expenses table so that I can link each expense record to the  |              | accessed efficiently.    |   |           |
| on family configure a related list on the Family Member record so that I can view all expenses entered by that family member directly from their profile.  Create of As a ServiceNow developer, I want to create business rules on the Expenses table so that specific logic and automation can be applied when records are inserted, updated, or deleted  Configure As a developer 1 As a developer the Service nowdeveloper, I want to configure a relationship between the Family Members table and the Expenses table so that I can link each expense record to the   | Configuring  | As a ServiceNow          | 1 | D.        |
| expenses  on the Family Member record so that I can view all expenses entered by that family member directly from their profile.  Create of As a ServiceNow developer, I want to create business rules on the Expenses table so that specific logic and automation can be applied when records are inserted, updated, or deleted  Configure As a developer I want to configure a relationship between the Family Members table and the Expenses table so that I can link each expense record to the   | related list | developer, I want to     |   | sravani   |
| record so that I can view all expenses entered by that family member directly from their profile.  Create of business developer, I want to rules create business rules on the Expenses table so that specific logic and automation can be applied when records are inserted, updated, or deleted  Configure the Service relationship nowdeveloper, I want to configure a relationship between the Family Members table and the Expenses table so that I can link each expense record to the   | on family    | configure a related list |   |           |
| view all expenses entered by that family member directly from their profile.  Create of As a ServiceNow developer, I want to rules create business rules on the Expenses table so that specific logic and automation can be applied when records are inserted, updated, or deleted  Configure As a developer the Service relationship nowdeveloper, I want to configure a relationship between the Family Members table and the Expenses table so that I can link each expense record to the  | expenses     | on the Family Member     |   |           |
| entered by that family member directly from their profile.  Create of As a ServiceNow developer, I want to create business rules on the Expenses table so that specific logic and automation can be applied when records are inserted, updated, or deleted  Configure As a developer the Service relationship nowdeveloper, I want to configure a relationship between the Family Members table and the Expenses table so that I can link each expense record to the  |              | record so that I can     |   |           |
| member directly from their profile.  Create of As a ServiceNow developer, I want to create business rules on the Expenses table so that specific logic and automation can be applied when records are inserted, updated, or deleted  Configure As a developer 1 A.jesinta  Configure As a developer 1 A.jesinta  The Service relationship nowdeveloper, I want to configure a relationship between the Family Members table and the Expenses table so that I can link each expense record to the  |              | view all expenses        |   |           |
| their profile.  Create of As a ServiceNow developer, I want to rules create business rules on the Expenses table so that specific logic and automation can be applied when records are inserted, updated, or deleted  Configure As a developer 1 A.jesinta  Configure As a developer 1 A.jesinta  Service relationship nowdeveloper, I want to configure a relationship between the Family Members table and the Expenses table so that I can link each expense record to the   |              | entered by that family   |   |           |
| Create of business developer, I want to create business rules on the Expenses table so that specific logic and automation can be applied when records are inserted, updated, or deleted  Configure As a developer 1 A.jesinta  Configure As a developer 1 A.jesinta  The Service relationship nowdeveloper, I want to configure a relationship between the Family Members table and the Expenses table so that I can link each expense record to the  |              | member directly from     |   |           |
| business rules  developer, I want to rules  create business rules on the Expenses table so that specific logic and automation can be applied when records are inserted, updated, or deleted  Configure As a developer the Service relationship nowdeveloper, I want to configure a relationship between the Family Members table and the Expenses table so that I can link each expense record to the   |              | their profile.           |   |           |
| rules  create business rules on the Expenses table so that specific logic and automation can be applied when records are inserted, updated, or deleted  Configure As a developer Service relationship nowdeveloper, I want to configure a relationship between the Family Members table and the Expenses table so that I can link each expense record to the  | Create of    | As a ServiceNow          | 1 | A.jesinta |
| on the Expenses table so that specific logic and automation can be applied when records are inserted, updated, or deleted  Configure As a developer 1 A.jesinta the Service nowdeveloper, I want to configure a relationship between the Family Members table and the Expenses table so that I can link each expense record to the  | business     | developer, I want to     |   |           |
| so that specific logic and automation can be applied when records are inserted, updated, or deleted  Configure As a developer The Service relationship nowdeveloper, I want to configure a relationship between the Family Members table and the Expenses table so that I can link each expense record to the   | rules        | create business rules    |   |           |
| and automation can be applied when records are inserted, updated, or deleted  Configure As a developer 1 Service relationship nowdeveloper, I want to configure a relationship between the Family Members table and the Expenses table so that I can link each expense record to the  |              | on the Expenses table    |   |           |
| be applied when records are inserted, updated, or deleted  Configure As a developer 1 A.jesinta the Service relationship nowdeveloper, I want to configure a relationship between the Family Members table and the Expenses table so that I can link each expense record to the   |              | so that specific logic   |   |           |
| records are inserted, updated, or deleted  Configure As a developer 1 A.jesinta  the Service relationship nowdeveloper, I want to configure a relationship between the Family Members table and the Expenses table so that I can link each expense record to the  |              | and automation can       |   |           |
| Configure As a developer 1 A.jesinta the Service relationship nowdeveloper, I want to configure a relationship between the Family Members table and the Expenses table so that I can link each expense record to the  |              | be applied when          |   |           |
| Configure the Service relationship nowdeveloper, I want to configure a relationship between the Family Members table and the Expenses table so that I can link each expense record to the   |              | records are inserted,    |   |           |
| the Service relationship nowdeveloper, I want to configure a relationship between the Family Members table and the Expenses table so that I can link each expense record to the   |              | updated, or deleted      |   |           |
| relationship nowdeveloper, I want to configure a relationship between the Family Members table and the Expenses table so that I can link each expense record to the   | Configure    |                          | 1 | A.jesinta |
| to configure a relationship between the Family Members table and the Expenses table so that I can link each expense record to the   | the          | Service                  |   |           |
| relationship between the Family Members table and the Expenses table so that I can link each expense record to the  | relationship | nowdeveloper, I want     |   |           |
| the Family Members table and the Expenses table so that I can link each expense record to the   |              | to configure a           |   |           |
| table and the Expenses table so that I can link each expense record to the  |              | relationship between     |   |           |
| Expenses table so that I can link each expense record to the  |              | the Family Members       |   |           |
| that I can link each expense record to the  |              | table and the            |   |           |
| expense record to the   |              | Expenses table so        |   |           |
|   |              | that I can link each     |   |           |
| norgan who incurred it  |              | expense record to the    |   |           |
| person who incurred it  |              | person who incurred it   |   |           |

| and easily track     |  |
|----------------------|--|
| individual spending. |  |